

Psychometric Aura Readings

The Aura is an energy emanating from every organ of the body. Using a saliva sample Rev. Barbarah Coleman can measure the Aura energies of the body psychometrically. Along with measuring the Aura energy of the body Rev. Barbarah looks at the seven physical and seven spiritual causes of ill health. From these readings she can make recommendations to help you increase the Aura vitality of your organs. Please note these readings are spiritual in nature and not intended to replace or discourage the advice of your physician.

Rev. Barbarah attended seminars, lectures and workshops led by Hanna Kroeger "The Grandmother of Health" where she learned such things as: the seven spiritual causes of disease, the seven physical causes of the disease, how to recognize specific problems and what to do about them, how to use the advisor and the pendulum, acupressure massage, laying on of hands, how to raise dropped organs, how to combine foods for your highest energy level, what to do for the immune system, color healings, crystal healings, flower essences, stone healing, healing with magnets, and much more.

Rev. Barbarah has 24 years experience in doing Aura readings as well being a Naturopath, Reflexologist and Reiki Master/teacher.
